

HISTORY OF WELD COUNTY TOWNS

GRAHAM – 1910

Ghost Towns in Weld County

Graham Ranch, owned by Ada B. Graham, was one of the first ranches along the cutoff of the Overland Stage route in 1864. In 1911, there were enough people settled in the area to establish a post office named Graham after the senior ranch owners. It was located in an isolated area about sixteen miles northeast of Grover and the mail came twice a week from the Burlington Railroad line. Graham Post Office was in operation until 1918.

The above information is gleaned from the upcoming book, Weld County Towns: The First 150 Years, researched by the City of Greeley Museums staff, Nancy Lourine Lynch head writer.
